A first of its kind, 'Epilepsy: an interactive guide for medical professionals' is a comprehensive interactive multimedia guide covering both medical and psychosocial issues.

Written by experts this guide is an invaluable clinical reference tool as well as an ideal training and educational package for Hospital Doctors, GPs and Specialist Nurses involved in the care and treatment of people with epilepsy.

Offering detailed information on the latest diagnostic techniques, drug and surgical treatments, this guide also addresses key psychosocial issues experienced by people with epilepsy. Using video clips from the internationally recognised video 'Epileptic Seizures', this package can also be used as a teaching tool for those in academic settings.

The National Society for Epilepsy (NSE) has been providing services to people with epilepsy, their families and professionals, for over 100 years and is the only epilepsy charity in the UK to be recognised by the World Health Organisation as a centre of excellence.

To find out more about the comprehensive range of services provided by NSE please telephone +44 (0) 1494 601300 or write to us at: Information & Education Department, The National Society for Epilepsy, Chalfont St Peter, Gerrards Cross, Buckinghamshire, SL9 0RJ
